

Faith CRC Discovery Series

Rooted Practices for Today's Challenges

Your co-worker corners you and says Joe Biden is the worst president ever...

Your daughter comes home and tells you she was asked for a naked picture from a boy at school...

Your visiting with your neighbor and his call to prayer alarm goes off...

You show up to a church on vacation and there is a woman giving the sermon...

What do you do?

In this session of our Discovery Series we will take an in-depth look at the rooted and faithful practices of biblical interpretation that the Reformed tradition has used for centuries. These practices of interpretation, known as a Reformed hermeneutic, help us to stay grounded and gracious in navigating difficult conversations in today's world.

Through open, gracious, and truthful dialogue we will seek to understand the practices and applications of our shared method of interpreting scripture as we seek to live out a faithful witness to Christ in this world.

The 5 sessions include:

- ▶ 10/1–Developing the Framework
- ▶ 10/8–Politics: Kingdoms in Conflict
- ▶ 10/15–Women in Office: Life as Both/And
- ▶ 10/22–Sexuality: Surrendered to Christ
- ▶ 11/5– Neighbors: His Image in All

When: Sunday Evenings in October

Where: Faith CRC

215 E. University Ave. Pella, IA

Time: 5:00–6:00pm

Questions? Call: 641-628-1335