

Faith CRC Discovery Series

In the history of the Christian Reformed Church, generally speaking, we have often viewed our call to missions through the lens of sending missionaries overseas or to specific people groups through our financial contributions. This practice has left a lasting impact on the church that now struggles to reach its next door neighbors with the gospel.

In the past few decades, movement within the Christian Reformed Church has been made to reconnect the whole church back into a local gospel proclamation but how to do this remains a terrifying thought for some.

In heeding the call of Christ to "be his witness in Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria, and to the ends of the earth" we will seek to grow deeper in our understanding, experience, and practice of sharing our faith one conversation at a time.

Witness: Locating Your Missional Moment

Finding where, when, why, and how to share the gospel...

In this session of our Discovery Series we will take an in-depth look at the calling for every believer "to speak and invite people into a life-changing response to the good news of Jesus Christ."

Through the following topics we will be able to locate where God is leading us to speak the good news of Jesus; his life, death, resurrection, and what that means for the redemption of people and the world.

If you want to be more confident in sharing your faith, this series is for you!

The 5 Sessions will include:

- 3/10—Locating your missional moment
- 3/17—What is the gospel...actually?
- 3/24—Developing Your Testimony
- 3/31—Witness Models: From Friendship to Church
- 4/7—Contemporary Applications: Ancient gospel meeting current needs
